☞ Notice.

DIFFICULTIES arising from the nature of the following work, the publisher has been compelled to remove to Philadelphia for the better execution of his plan. The editorial department has in consequence fallen into other hands. Mr. ALLEN's present engagement rendering it impossible to superintend it in another city. The friends and relations of the different signers to the Declaration of Independence are therefore requested to direct their favors to the publisher, No. 443, Market-street, Philadelphia.

For Publishing by Subscription,
A Biography of the Signers
OF THE
Declaration of Independence,
Accompanied with Plates.
To which will be annexed a History of the Proceedings of Congress, during the passage of the Law, and the Declaration itself, with the fac simile Engravings of the Signatures.

By JOHN SANDERSON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

When we consider the personal qualities of the statesmen whose names are affixed to the Declaration of Independence, the perilous occasion which demanded the exercise of their wisdom and deliberation, and the influence of their councils on the interests of mankind, we must acknowledge that very rarely a more imposing spectacle has been offered to the world, and we shall seek in vain in the annals of nations, for an event more worthy of commemoration, and of being cherished forever in the hearts of a grateful and generous people. The love of independence is interwoven with the frame and constitution of the human mind. It is almost the first sentiment that animates the infant's features in the cradle; and amongst all the actions and enterprizes of man, none has awaked into activity a greater exertion of the virtuous energies of his nature, none has excited a greater warmth of veneration, and has more imperious claims upon our gratitude, than resistance to tyranny and political aggression.

In all republican states the first tribute of genius has been paid to the patriot or the hero who has promoted the cause of liberty and maintained the independence and dignity of man. The animated canvas and breathing marble have rescued his features from the grasp of death, and the pen of the historian has inscribed the achievements to the imperishable records of fame. It would indeed be no favorable prognostic of the perpetuity of our republican institutions to discover an insensibility to the obligations we owe the memory of the illustrious patrons of American freedom. They have raised us, by their magnanimity, from the arbitrary dominion of a foreign power, to the distinguished elevation of a sovereign and independent people; they have asserted and maintained the imprescriptible rights of humanity by the "mutual pledge of their pledge of their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors;" and, as long as virtue holds her empire in the hearts of their successors, the example of these generous benefactors will not be lost to the world; their names will not pass away nor be forgotten, or their glorious deeds be confounded in the common and casual transaction of life.—Ingratitude is a vice that in nations, as well as individuals, indicates the last degree of degeneracy and corruption; it is a vice that implies the absence of every virtue; it was in the age of Caligula that the name of the Scipios was proscribed, that the state of Brutus brought death on its possessor.

"The glory of our ancestors is the light of posterity," and the homage of the living cannot be offered to the merits of the illustrious dead with an effectual or sterile admiration. Great and splendid actions will seldom be achieved by men who have humble or ordinary objects in prospect. It is by contemplating the life and character of those who are marked out from the multitude by their eminent qualities, that we become emulous of their virtues and their renown. The trophies of Miltiades interrupted the sleeps of Themistocles; and Theseus, hearing the exploits of Hercules, was fired with his spirit, and became the successful rival of his fame. The rude savage of the desert listens with rapture to the deeds of his ancestors, and hangs around his hut the emblems of his father's valour.

More need not be said to enforce the utility of the publication we have undertaken, and which we now submit to the patronage of our fellow-citizens, with a hope, that from the liberality of their encouragement, we shall be able to present it to the public worthy of their approbation. We must depend for the illustration of many of the characters of our biography, upon the generosity of their surviving relatives and friends, to furnish us with whatever interesting materials may be in their possession; for which, with our grateful acknowledgments, we promise a copy of the entire work as a compensation.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be published in numbers or half volumes of 200 pages, octavo, and contained in ten numbers. To the first will be prefixed an appropriate frontispiece—and the work will be commenced with the declaration of independence, with engraved fac similes of the signatures, and a compendious detail of the proceedings of congress, during the passage of the law. Each of the lives, unless when it is impracticable, will be preceded by a likeness of the person, engraved by the best artists in the United States.

II. It will be printed on fine paper, made expressly for the purpose, and delivered to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per number, payable on delivery.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1819.

The legislature of Georgia convened in Milledgeville, on the 1st inst. agreeably to law. In the Senate, the Hon. John Foster, from Columbia county, was chosen President, and William Robertson, Secretary.—In the House of Representatives, General David Adams, of Jasper, was appointed Speaker, and William Turner, Esq. Clerk.

On the 6th inst. the following appointment was made by the legislature: Major Freeman Walker, of Augusta, Senator in the Congress of the United States, without opposition, in the place of Mr. Forsyth, on a foreign mission.

The General Assembly of North Carolina met on the 15th inst.—In the Senate, the Hon. Bartlett Yancey, of Caswell, was unanimously appointed Speaker, Gen. Robert Williams, clerk, and Benjamin H. Covington, assistant clerk.

In the House of Commons, Romulus M. Sanders, Esq. was elected Speaker, and Major Pleasant Henderson was appointed clerk.

MILITARY TRIAL.

A paper printed at St. Louis, mentions that Gen. Bissel left that place early in Oct. for N. Orleans, to preside at a Court Martial for the trial of Col. King.

A report is stated, in the Georgia Republican, to have been circulated, that General Gaines had received orders for detachments of 5000 men, from this state & from S. Carolina, to proceed to Amelia Island. We learn from authority not to be doubted, that the above report is without foundation—no such orders as those alluded to, having been received by General Gaines. [Aug. Adv.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

We learn that yesterday, Michael Freytag, Esq. and James Vanholt, both of Philadelphia county, went into New-Jersey in pursuit of game, when the former in shooting at a bird, accidentally discharged the contents of his gun into the head of the latter. Mr. Vanholt survived about six hours. [Franklin Gaz. 19th inst.

Baltimore, Nov. 19.

Arrived, schr. Maria, Allen, 16 days from Port-au-Prince, reports, British brig Neptune, from Liverpool, just arrived, was robbed by a PIRATE off Tortugas, of dry goods to the amount of 30,000 dollars. The pirate had in charge a Philadelphia sloop, discharging her—all hands massacred—the sloop has been since re-taken and sent into Francois.

GREAT FIRE AT SCHENECTADY.

On Wednesday morning, more than fifty dwelling houses and stores were consumed in Schenectady.—The Female Academy was all destroyed, and the elegant Bridge over the Mohawk, considerably injured.

A CURIOUS ROBBERY.

On the 27th of September last, the house of John Lyons, jr. in the vicinity of New-Orleans, was forcibly entered in the night, by fourteen armed villains, with their faces blacked. After tying Mr. Lyons, his wife, and children, and threatening their lives if they made any noise or resistance, they ransacked the house, and carried off all the linen and wearing apparel they could lay their hands on. Not content with the plunder of goods, they seized and took with them, a whole family of blacks, belonging to Mr. Lyons, consisting in all of ten persons, viz. Jack, his wife Flora, two sons and six daughters, the youngest only four years old. Five hundred dollars are offered for the recovery of the slaves.

FROM NEW-ORLEANS.

The following letter is from a physician, formerly of this county, now residing in N. Orleans, to his father. Awful indeed, is the picture; though not more so than that presented by accounts from Mobile, and sundry places on the Mississippi. Eager rapidly to accumulate a fortune, hundreds of our enterprising young men, hie to those southern cities, blooming in all the freshness of our northern clime—gay, joyous, ardent;—The first intelligence from them is a letter, filled with their brilliant prospects; the next is one from some kind friend, sealed with black, stating to the agonized father, that his son no longer lives. Such is the fate of ninety in an hundred.

Are we then foes to enterprise?—Would we have our young men forever remain in their father's chimney corner? Far otherwise. But we would, if possible, cure this mania, this destructive hallucination, which leads to the opinion that wealth and happiness are alone to be found in the West and South. We would again remind the young and enterprising, that along the northern line of Pennsylvania there are some millions of acres of fine lands, in a country, abounding with streams of pure water, and so healthy that they might hope to see their children's children, enjoying the fruits of their labor.—But read the extract:—

"NEW-ORLEANS, Sept. 29.

"I have only time to write a few lines on this occasion, by which you will discover that I am in the land of the living, though surrounded by mortality.—The yellow fever has never raged in this country with so much violence as the present season; but I am happy to state that the cases are not so malignant at present. I have just received a report of deaths in this city and vicinity from the 1st to the 26th instant, which is substantially correct. I will premise that there are but two burying grounds—one Catholic, the other Protestant: In the former the natives of the country, and foreigners who are Catholics, are interred: all others are deposited in the other—whether Christian, Jew, or Heretic.

"Between the 1st and 26th instant, there were buried in the Catholic ground, 181 white men—25 women, and 14 children;—and 13 colored men—14 women, and 24 children:—And in the Protestant ground, 183 white men—85 women—and 17 children—and 2 colored men—5 women and 2 children.

Total in 26 days—507.

The greatest number buried in one day 30. The smallest number, 11."

UNITED STATES BANK.

The report of the Committee of the Stockholders of the bank of the United States, dated the 5th inst. signed WM. DRAYTON, chairman, and ordered to be published under the direction of J. Gales, Jr. Secretary, contains the following paragraph, viz:

"In the city of Philadelphia, the local banks have received from the parent bank 1,150,972 dollars in specie, more than they have paid to it. No documents which the committee have been possessed of, exhibit the Specie transactions between the bank of the United States and its offices and the local banks generally, but the books of the institution in the city shew that the balances due to it by the local banks amount to 2,502,658, and that the balances due by it to the local banks amount to 941,000 dolls. manifesting that the large sum of 1,561,658 dollars remains due to the institution, for which it is entitled to demand specie, but which it has forborne to do although, in order to support the credit of the country, it has purchased great quantities of specie at a considerable expense."

In the National Intelligencer of the 13th inst. edited by the Secretary of the committee, and of the stockholders, a writer, in reference to this part of the report, makes an assertion in the following words, viz:

"Numerous state banks have failed, and by the report "those in Philadelphia are much indebted to the Bank of the U. States, and must soon be broken off if they aid merchants to pay Duties to Government."

From the want of more perspicuity, and a more just arrangement of the words of the report, an impression has been made, not only on the mind of the writer in the Intelligencer, but extensively in the United States, that, at the date of the report, the banks in Philadelphia were indebted to the banks of the United States, 2,502,568, and that the bank of the United States at the same time, was indebted to the banks in Philadelphia 941,000 dollars, manifesting that the large sum of 1,561,658 dollars was due as an aggregate balance from the banks in Philadelphia, and for which the bank of the United States was entitled to demand specie.

To correct an impression so prejudicial to the credit of the Banks in Philadelphia, the undersigned deem it their duty to state, that in bringing into one collected view the balances between the bank of the U. States and the banks of Philadelphia, it appears that, on the said 5th inst. there was due to the bank of the United States from some of the said banks the amount of 63,136, and due by the bank of the U. States, to the rest of the said banks the amount of 49,055 dolls. shewing the balance in favor of the bank of the U. States to be 14,081 dolls. which was the only sum for which the bank of the U. States was entitled to demand specie, on that day, from the local banks in Philadelphia.

A letter from Washington says, "Orders have been given for the concentration of troops at St. Marys, on one side, and at Mobile, on the other side, of the Floridas.—Congress, when met, may point out their future line of march." [Boston Centinel.

Petersburg, Va Sept. 19.

We understand that the theatre will close about the 28th inst. at which time Mr. Caldwell will embark with his company for a winter campaign in New-Orleans. Mr. C. has been negociating for the Orleans theatre for some time; and, having at length completed his arrangements, will proceed in the execution of a plan formed two years ago.—It is presumed, from the entire novelty of the proposed establishment in the western metropolis, as well as from the character of its inhabitants, that the manager cannot fail of receiving a liberal remuneration for all the difficulties of the undertaking, certainly an arduous and bold one. Mr. C. intending to remain in Orleans until the 1st of March, of course cannot visit Washington this season; but will return to Petersburg about the 1st of April ensuing. [Intel.

New-York, Nov. 19.

We learn by the Appomatax, from Curracoa, that the Dutch sloop of war Dolphin, had captured and brought into that port a Patriot privateer, which was to undergo a trial on an accusation of having captured several Dutch vessels.

It was reported at Curracoa, that the Patriot army under General Bermudas had taken Maracaibo. [Gaz.

ANOTHER WEST INDIA HURRICANE.

By the schr. Live-Oak, captain Britt, we have received advices from St. Barts, to the 30th, and St. Thomas to the 31st ult. News had reached the latter place of two hurricanes experienced in the Windward Islands on the fifteenth and thirteenth of October.—The effects of the latter were most calamitous, having totally destroyed the prospect of the coming crop, which was extremely flattering. The accounts stated that the gale was even more severe than the dreadful hurricane of the 21st of September. Several droghers had arrived to obtain supplies, the estates being totally destroyed. The accounts were principally from Barbados. The Leeward Islands felt nothing of this gale. [ib.

Liverpool Market, Oct. 9.

We have had more business doing in the cotton market this week, and the sales have been about 7300 bags, of which 3563 were uplands, at 12½ to 14d.; 900 Orleans from 13¾ to 17d., and 100 Sea Islands. The residue of sales were chiefly Brazils. We consider the market to be better in the middling and lower qualities of uplands and N. Orleans, but the better qualities remain the same, We consider the present improvement merely the result of a demand which the previous dullness had created. There are no speculations, nor any advance in yarns or goods. The imports are very light from all quarters, but we see no chance for any great advance in the article, and without a revival of trade in Manchester, we shall continue dull as at present, and nothing will be done except for the wants of the day.—The whole stock at the end of the year will be less than 100,000 bags, of which we think about 40,00 will be American cotton. There is a good deal remaining in the Brazils; the advices from the E. Indies state the last crop to be deficient, but there is already a two years supply in Europe.

Tobacco 3 to 7d; rice 18 to 20s.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

The arrival of the Governor Griswold, captain Gookin, at New-York, puts the editors of the Gazette in possession of Liverpool papers to the 9th ult.

Alderman Bridges is elected lord mayor of London, by a large majority. The votes were, for Bridges 3007, for Thorpe 2043, and for Wood 2006.

The general principles of the constitution of Wirtemberg had received the sanction of the king and states for that country.

The London Morning Chronicle of the 7th ult. remarks, "We have more than once observed, that Prussia could not long remain in slavery, while Bavaria was free. The king of Prussia seems to have been aware of this, and accordingly the first fruit of the conferences at Carlsbad, is a resolution to destroy what little liberty has been communicated to the south of Germany. The liberty of the press is at an end.

Accounts from Stockholm state, that on the 20th of September, the convention between Sweden and Denmark was ratified for the arrangement of their differences, concluded by the negotiation of lord Strangford, under the mediation of Great Britain.

An Antwerp article of Sept. 27, says—The repairs and building of the fortifications in the Netherlands, are going forward to an incalculable expence. The duke of Wellington had suggested various alterations and additions during his recent tour. It is said the expence is to be paid by England.

Died, in England, col. Hervey, aid to the prince regent, of the 14th light dragoons, of the order of Bath.

A highwayman on his return to prison from trial boasted that he "came off capitally."

From the N. Y. Eve. Post.

Liverpool, Oct 9.

GERMANY.—The army of Austria has been increased 80,000 men by the last levy, and a second levy, equally numerous, is already talked of!

Sandt, it is said, will be tried by a central tribunal, to be established at Mayence. The Prussian conspiracy will be brought before the same court.

It is affirmed, that the king of Saxony, compassionating the persecutions to which Jews are subjected in many parts of Germany, has granted to all persons of the Jewish religion, residing in his dominions, rights of citizenship.

Accounts from Frankfort say, that several Jewish houses are preparing to quit that city in order to avoid the persecutions of which their nation is the object. The rich bankers, Rothschilds, are going to settle at Vienna.—Our readers will remember that the emperor of Austria has granted them patents of nobility, as a recompence for the services which they performed during the last war.

Disturbances have broken out at Odenwalo, a province of the grand duchy of Hesse, which seem to have been very serious They are said to have arisen from the raising of taxes. A detachment of cavalry, ordered to arrest a lawyer of Michelstadt, suspected of having excited these troubles, has been put to flight by the country people. A detachment of infantry, with four pieces of cannon, has been sent from Darmstadt to reduce the rioters to order. It is said the insurgents have made themselves masters of six pieces of cannon belonging to the castle of the count of Erbach.

FRANCE.—The number of English in Paris is increasing. It is reckoned that not less than 15,000 are now in that city.

DENMARK.—It is stated on the authority of private letters from Hamburg, that the disturbances at Copenhagen, directed against the Jews, had been renewed with greater violence. The troops having put them down, it is asserted, that the next day the sailors in the port reinforced the populace, and after holding some parleys with the soldiers, the latter refused to act against the people. It is added, that the king had, in consequence, quitted his capital to proceed to a strong fortress at some leagues distance, and that new troops had been ordered to march upon Copenhagen. There have been disturbances of a similar character at Elsineur.

The outrages committed at Copenhagen against the Jews, were of a more violent nature than those of many towns in Germany. One of the Jews was forced from his carriage, and stoned in the open day; he is said to be dead of his wounds. The secretary of an advocate, who headed a mob that broke into the house of a Jew, and threw the furniture and goods into the street, has been condemned to be imprisoned for life, in a house where the prisoners are employed in rasping wood.

SPAIN.—The most afflicting accounts have been received from Madrid, under date of the 16th ult. They state that the yellow fever had increased with alarming rapidity, during the last few days in the isle of Leon. From the 1st to the 20th of August, 105 persons died of the contagion, 392 recovered, and 723 were attacked. From the 20th (the day on which the communications ceased) the mortality was 345; recovered 663, and the number of sick had amounted to 1313. The latest accounts from the above isle state, that on the 3 first days of September, 145 fell victims; on the 4th, 57; 5th, 40; 6th, 40; and 7th, 35. Letters from Cadiz, of the 15th ult. report, that the malady begins to assume a serious character in that city.

Accounts from Madrid, of the 8th of last month, mention, that the English government has revived its proposal to the court of Spain, to obtain upon certain conditions, the cession of Cuba, which appears to place the Spanish ministry in a situation which is the more embarrassing, as the inhabitants of that rich colony seem resolved to defend their liberty by force of arms, rather than submit to the power of Great Britain. The correspondence between London and Madrid is extremely active at this moment, which seems to indicate that highly important negociations on foot—but they are involved in mystery, and we must wait with patience till time shall discover the secret.

General meetings on the unfortunate affair of the 16th August, both in counties and in towns, continue to be announced in various parts of the country. At a late meeting of some of the principal inhabitants of Westmoreland, we were highly gratified by the reasonable and moderate tone in which Mr. Brougham addressed the assembly on this melancholy subject. With the natural and proper feelings of an Englishman, on the violent proceedings of the 16th August, he expressed, at the same time, his pointed disapprobation of those moving masses of radicals, who march round the country, to influence and overawe the decisions of every local assembly, by an interference which is equally dangerous and unconstitutional.

A fine light house is now erecting on the end of the Holybead Pier; it is said that it is to be lighted with gas.

Mr. Vandenhoff, we understand, has declined the engagement which had been offered to him by Mr. Elliston of Drury-Lane.

Paris, Oct. 8.

I have communicated to you in a former letter, the warlike rumors which have acquired a certain consistency at Paris. A note transmitted on Friday by the Baron de Vincent, embassador of Austria, to the marquis Dessoles, President of the Council, is said to be relative to the political views of Austria, Russia and Prussia. It contributed to lower the funds yesterday.

It is affirmed that the Duke of Rovigo is on his way to Paris, in order to abide a new trial, after having set aside the sentence of death, to which he is condemned by contumace.

Intelligence from Boulogne states, that the equinoctial winds have been severely felt in that quarter. A vessel from Havre, bound to Petersburg has been wrecked near that port. All the baggage of the Russian Minister Count Capo D'Istre, is lost.

Twelve passengers, amongst whom were six women, have perished.

Brussels, Sept. 20.

The Countess de Montholon arrived here two days ago. It is asserted that she is to go to France with her children. Her husband will not leave Bonaparte. Things are in statu quo at St. Helena, no change. The same strict watch is kept by land and by sea. Bonaparte's health is not as precarious as has been represented: he is occupied in writing extensive Memoirs, in which he is assisted by Bertrand and Montholon.

London, Oct. 5.

Madrid Gazettes and Cadiz Diaries to the 24th of last month, have reached us to day. Much importance is attached to the arrival of the Hornet, American sloop of war at Cadiz, from the United States, bearing despatches from Washington relative to the Florida treaty; but it seems that this vessel had not reached Spain up to the middle of last month; this could hardly have been expected, as she did not leave N. York until the end of August. The private letters from Madrid observe, that the grants made to Spanish grandees by the Spanish government, is not the only matter of controversy with the United States. Another subject of much more importance is negociating—the independent governments of South America.—Ferdinand declares that the Washington government must agree not to recognize any of the Insurgent governments, before he will ratify the treaty for the cession of the Floridas. This determination, it is understood, was forwarded to the United States by Mr. Forsyth, in the despatches by the Hornet sloop of war.

THE BALLOON.

The following memoranda are from the journal of Messrs, Livingston and Sadler:—

"Ascended from the area of the Liverpool workhouse at 14 minutes past 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in a north-east direction. From the hazy state of the atmosphere our view was much confined.

Kept near the earth, the better to gratify the spectators. Drank to the health of the ladies who presented the banners, and to our numerous kind friends. We could distinctly hear the military music and the cheers of the people for a considerable time, when we must have been at least a mile above the earth.

Twenty-five minutes before four (elevation about one mile and an half) passed over to the left of Chorley, and we could see the people running out to observe us; and distinctly heard them invite us to descend and pay them a visit.

Quarter before four, near Skipton. Threw out some ballast; and reached a current blowing more to the east, and could see the river Humber.

Five minutes past four (elevation about four miles) cold most intense, thermometer down at six degrees; considerable gas allowed to escape; passing over a very barren country; opened the valve, and deconded low; could just hear the people below cry out "Yorkshire."

Ten minutes before five, observed the sea, and made instant preparations to alight.

Grappling iron broke; car thrown with great violence against a rising piece of ground; Mr. Livingston considerably bruised.

Five minutes after five, secured the balloon, at about 6 miles distant from the sea, procured a post chaise, and proceeded to Stockton.'

We understand that the sun was never visible to them during the whole time; sunshine was the only thing indeed wanting to render the spectacle complete, as the variegated colours of the silk, by reflecting the solar light, would have greatly enhanced the beauty of the spectacle.—Mr. Sadler, we perceive intends to communicate to the public all the circumstances attending his recent aerial voyage, in a lecture to be delivered at the Music Hall, on Thursday next. [Liverpool paper.

The building of a fort at Grand Menan was proceeding at the last date.

London, October 4.

Mr. Kean has addressed a letter to the conductor of a Sunday paper, explanatory of his reasons for wishing to go to America. We think no one can read this letter without smiling at the arrogance and vanity it exhibits.—Will it be believed, that one of his demands is, that his name shall appear in larger letters in the play-bills, than that of any other performer? What a pitiful ambition! A morning paper remarks upon this letter, that 'his American engagement, as was suspected, proves to have been a puff. In his determination (of not going to America) he says he yields to the public voice. This is another puff. The public voice, thus loud raised, has been heard no where except in his own excessive vanity. But while he thus yields to the public voice, he will not yield a particle of his rights: he is determined to be manager on the nights of his performance, as heretofore. The public may, therefore, anticipate the same selfishness and jealousy that evinced themselves in the case of Mr. Buck, Mr. Booth, and Miss Macauley. From such management no good can be expected. It would, perhaps, be better to dispense with his services altogether, than to accept them on such terms.'

SEPARATION IN HIGH LIFE.

An ancient Peer, of some singularities, carried on a soft epistolary correspondence, in consequence of casual glances with a Lady much younger than himself, who was an opposite neighbor and the daughter of a gentleman of rank. An elopement took place—the parties were married.—They quarrelled in the honey-moon, and the Lady eloped again! The fair fugitive is not accused of impropriety. She has written to one of the Secretaries of State a full account pro and con and the Noble Lord has attended to the application.

Three actions for Crim. Con. are announced for the next November Term, in which the Officers of the Life Guards [and they ought also to be Honor Guards] stand conspicuous.

AN AUKWARD ACCOUCHMENT.

On Sunday evening the 5th ult. the house of Mr. J. Harris, at Biddenden, was broke open during the absence of the family, by a man and woman; on the return of the family an alarm was given, when the female robber was by the fright taken in labor, and delivered of a son in the bed of the master of the house. [Kentish Gaz.

ROW-STREET.

Tuesday, Mr. Watling, of the Strand; Mr. Shorter, of Wych street; Mr. Harris, of Broad-court, Bow-street; and Mr. Cahuac, of Blackman-street, Southwark, publishers and news venders, were brought before R. Birnie, Esq. the sitting Magistrate, by Bishop, the officer, on warraats charging them with publishing a wicked and malicious libel imputing the crime of Murder to the Magistrates and Yeomanry Cavalry of Manchester, and scandalizing, traducing, and vilifying his Royal Highness the Prince Regent and the Government of this Kingdom. The libel was said to be contained in a pamphlet, called "The Republican, No. 2, Vol. 1," and first published on Saturday last.—They were bound over for trial.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 25th of April last, a man called NED, formerly the property of Mr. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, and by him sold to Hepburn & Dundas. He had on when he went away an old country blue and white cloth coat, and kersey trowsers—his right hand in a sling, in consequence of the kick of a horse. Ned is a stupid looking fellow, and hesitates very much when he speaks. I will give fifty dollars if apprehended in the District, or the above reward for apprehending him out of the District, so that I get him again.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on Thursday, the 11th inst. a negro man, named DICK, who sometimes calls himself Dick Douglas. He is a small man about 5 feet 6 inches high, and is not a very black man. I purchased him from the estate of Edgar McCarty, esq. Cedar Grove, Fairfax county, Va. and it is likely that he may be lurking about that neighborhood or Colchester, as he has a wife at capt. Berry's of the latter place; or he may have gone to Loudoun county, as he has lived there in the neighborhood of Wm. McCarty and John McCarty, near Leesburg. He had on and took with him an old grey cloth coat and a brown do pantaloons of drab colored domestic cloth. He is much addicted to liquor, and is a coarse shoemaker. I will give 20 dollars if taken in the district of Columbia. Thirty dollars if taken in Fairfax county, and the above reward if apprehended in any other place, and secured so that I get him again; and reasonable charges if brought home. WM. B. STUART.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named about 22 years of age, his fore teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co, and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there.—I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home. 100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Aldie, Loudoun county, Virginia, on the night of the 11th inst. a negro man, who calls his name NED BURGES. He is a shrewd, intelligent negro, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; 30 years of age, well made, active and polite. Had on when he went away, a sky colored coat, and corded pantaloons. His right eye sore, apparently occasioned by a blow, the blood having settled around it. His ears have been pierced, and had green silk in them when he went away. It is expected he is now lurking about Fairfax court-house and Aldie. The above Ned Burges ran away on the night of the 25th of last Aug. and was caught on the 11th inst. on the night of which he effected his elopement by drawing the staple to which he was fastened by the handle of a pan, while there was no person in the kitchen but himself. He was caught on the 11th inst. a few miles below Aldie, but I think it improbable that he has gone near the same place again. I will give 100 dollars if he is taken out of the county, and fifty if taken in the county, and secured so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges if brought home. GEO. GULICK.

P S. It is supposed that the said negro has obtained papers of freedom, or a free pass, or something of the kind. G. G.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, asmooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bearskin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment.
